4 RETURNED TO ALABAMA

Manhunt Ends 4-State Spree

By Lois Sapp

The surrender of four ex-carnival workers charged with murder in Alabama and armed robbery in Alabama, Texas and Oklahoma ended an extensive manhunt in Milam County Monday.

From a frame farm house about one mile south of Buckholts on a farm-to-market road, the desperadoes filed out of their hideout after Milam County Sheriff Carl Black fired three warning shots at the house.

Shon Mendoza, a Milam County farmer, gave the sheriff the tip as to the location of the fugitives. He reported that he had seen strangers around the farmhouse rented by Raymond Krupica.

The men are Gerald June Eaton, 27, of Buckholts; Harold Leon Edwards, 20, of Roudiett, Okla.; Dezso John Lokos, 26, formerly of Minnesota and Clarence Cecil Coon, 24, of College City, Calif.

INTENSIVE MANHUNT

The manhunt intensified in the Buckholts area Sunday after a car belonging to a man who was murdered Friday in Alabama was spotted in Seaton and later found parked near the home of Eaton's aunt, Skatie Eaton, in Buckholts.

Lawmen surrounded the small frame Eaton home but the four fugitives had escaped through the rear door of the home after two warning rounds had been pumped into the roof.

About 100 lawmen joined the search to make it one of the biggest fugitive manhunts in the history of Central Texas.

Bloodhounds from the Huntsville State prison were brought in. Officials worked through the night in near-freezing weather looking for the wanted men.

POSSE ON HORSEBACK

Horses were brought in and Sheriff Black, Charlie Mayer and Sgt. C. D. Mitchell, from the Dept. of Corrections in Huntsville, worked with the 10 bloodhounds riding horseback through the heavily thicketed area.

By 3:30 a.m. the bloodhounds had lost the scent of the wanted men and were taken off the hunt. Airplanes and National Guard jeeps joined in the search.

The men worked relentlessly and there was only one injury reported. Trooper Bill DeLoach of Temple broke an arm when he fell over a fence in the darkness.

FUGITIVES HIDEOUT

The break came shortly before noon Monday when Sheriff Black had gone to a Buckholts cafe for something to eat. Mendoza reported seeing strange men at the house rented by Krupicka.

At the same time Mrs. Black drove up to report a tip that had been given her about some bread that had been seen scattered along a path.

Sheriff Black jumped in the car with his wife and they took off in the direction of the farmhouse Mendoza described.

He was followed by two highway patrol units, Unit 560 of the Dept. of Corrections and a number of other peace officers.

Morris A. Hairston was with the Sheriff's party when they arrived at the scene.

"We first went to the barn to search and then looked in the gulleys behind the barn. Hairston relatd and continued. "As we headed back to the house one of the officers told us to get down as there was someone in the house."

The fugitives were ordered to come out with their hands up. About five minutes later Sheriff Black fired through the roof of the house.

Another few minutes, and the order was given again and two more shots were fired, one into the house. Sheriff Black called for the tear gas and they were warned to come out or they'd fill the house full of holes.

SURRENDERED

"We're coming out the front door," were the words Hairston reported the men as saying before they came out meekly with their hands up.

Inside, three guns were found, a 22-cal. pump rifle, a 20-guage double barrelled shotgun and a 38-cal. revolver.

These weapons were added to the other seven shotguns and four rifles that were found in the Culpepper car. Ammunition, luggage, heavy clothing, blankets, a camp stove and a gasoline lantern were also found in the car.

As the gunmen were brought in to the Milam County Courthouse, a huge crowd gathered, along with dozens of lawmen and many newsmen.

The men were questioned, one at a time, each signing statements admitting the series of charges against them, according to Sheriff Black. Black also said Dezso Lokos admitted to the killing of the Alabama soft drink salesman.

GUNMEN JOKE

While awaiting questioning, Eaton and Lokos talked with reporters, wise-cracked and cut-up around the Sheriff's office.

They joked about "riding old sparkie" - slang for being executed in the electric chair.

Eaton said they circled Buckholts going north and swinging to the south. "We could have gotten away and come straight through Cameron without anyone seeing us if we had followed the river," Eaton said.

A school chum of Eaton's came to the office and they talked of the hunting trips they used to make when they were young. The schoolmate said Eaton quit school when he was in the eighth grade and he had lost track of him during the past few years.

Edwards sat in a chair near the pair of jokesters and had little to say. He said he was glad it was over and that he was feeling bad because of the wound on the back of his head.

"Part of a bullet got me when they shot into the house," Edwards said.

Coon was silent after coming out of interrogation.

Captives Waive Extradition Here

Alabama officials arrived in Livingston, Ala. Wednesday with the four men who admitted a six-day tour of violence in three states after their capture in Buckholts Monday.

"The four men have waived extradition to the State of Alabama. Sheriff Carl Black and County Atty. John B. Henderson Jr. have agreed to release the four men to the Alabama authorities that are here conducting the investigation," a statement from the County Attorney's office said Tuesday night.

They are being returned there to stand trial for the brutal slaying of a York, Ala. soft drink salesman.

Announcement that the Texas, Alabama and Oklahoma authorities had agreed that the suspects should be tried on the murder charge in Alabama was made here Tuesday night after a day-long conference between officers from the three states.

CAPITAL OFFENSE

The states of Oklahoma and Texas have filed charges of armed robbery against the men. In Texas, armed robbery is a capital offense and maximum penalty is death.

Gerald June Eaton, 27, of Buckholts; Harold Leon Edwards, 20, of Roudlett, Okla.; Dezso John Lokos, 26, whose last known place of residence was in Minnesota, and Clarence Cecil Coon, 24, of College City, Calif., are the four suspects arrested in Buckholts.

The men are charged in Alabama with the beating, shooting and slaying of Leonard Culpepper, 55, whose battered body was found in a well near his home in York last Saturday.

Culpepper had been shot three times, once in the spine and twice in the head. Culpepper's wife was also savagely beaten. She was reported in a serious condition in an Alabama hospital Tuesday.

ALABAMA CHARGES

Alabama authorities have also charged the ex-carnival workers with assualt with intent to murder and robbery. They said that $125 and the Culpepper car were stolen by the assailants.

Authorities from Alabama flew to Temple Monday night and traveled by car on to Cameron for the Tuesday investigation. They brought with them warrants for the four wanted men.

Major Bill Jones, Chief of the Bureau of Investigation and Identification Dept. of Public Safety, Capt. R. W. Godwin, Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Investigation and Sumter County Sheriff W. A. Bratton were the three officials who came to Cameron and took the quartet back to Alabama. They brought with them two pilots and a Birmingham News reporter.

The Alabama lawmen and the four suspects left Cameron Wednesday. Some of the group left traveling in the Culpepper car while others flew back on the plane that was waiting in Temple.

★ Oklahoma's Wilemans ★ Texas' Lewises

Here's News Of Robbery Victims

Mr. T. L. Wileman of Walters, Okla., and his son Larry were in Cameron Tuesday to identify the four men who were being held in the Milam County jail and to identify belongings stolen from them on December 10.

They came to Cameron with Mr. Ernest Lovett, agent with the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation from Duncan, Okla. and Cotton County Sheriff Joe McCluskey of Walters, Okla.

Mr. Wileman told a Herald reporter that "All the clothes the men had on belonged to my son or myself, except for two pairs of shoes." He also said they identified some guns that had been stolen from their home.

The four masked gunmen struck the Wileman home about 7:30 p.m. on December 10.

Wileman said, "We're the luckiest three people in the United States. If we had been shot it would have been days before we'd been found." He noted that their nearest neighbor was a half mile away.

He recalled the incident much like that of the Lewis family. He also said that Harold Edwards had gone to school with his son. His son recognized him but gave no indication that he did. Edwards didn't say a half dozen words, but Eaton, Coon and Lokos were rough and used foul language, Wileman said. Eaton did cover his wife, who was in bed before they came, with a blanket before they left, he recalled.

Mrs. Wileman is still suffering from shock and Wileman said she has a bad heart. Wileman admitted he had been in a daze since the robbery happened.

The Wileman car was found near DeQueen, Arkansas Wednesday. Loot was found inside the car and was identified as being part of the items stolen from the Lewis home near Buckholts.

★

County Supt. H. D. Maxwell told The Herald today that a J. D. Lewis Fund has been set up to help the Lewis family restore their home furnishings and personal belongings.

Anyone wishing to donate to the Lewis fund can send their contributions to The Lewis Fund in care of Willie Dudik at the Dudik Grocery and Market in Buckholts.

The Milam County School supervisor and her husband, now retired, were forced from their home by three masked gunmen, then abandoned gagged and bound on the Little River bank.

Their home was ransacked and furniture demolished. Radios, silverware, groceries, all of Mr. Lewis' clothing, guns and various other items were taken along with the family car. Their car was later found in Alabama, burned and a total loss.

The Lewises are still recuperating from shock and exposure.

They were taken from their home on the night of December 9 after about an hour of questioning and harassment by the men. Bound with venetian blind cords, gagged with pillow cases and forced into the couple's 1962 model automobile, the men drove the elderly couple to an area on the banks of the Little River, about four miles away, where a fourth man joined them.

Forcing the Lewises out of the car, the quartet rebound them and left them in an old panel truck.

After about two hours they managed to free themselves and walked three and one-half miles to a farm house to get help.

When they were returned home they found their home completely ransacked and robbed of many valuables.

When the Lewis' car was found in Alabama Saturday, many of the Lewises stolen articles were inside.

Geologist Says Odds 1-4 For Oil

By Lloyd Albertson

The news that Shell Oil Company's long-rumored deep wildcat was definitely scheduled was of more than average interest to one Cameron citizen when it was announced this week. He is Mr. Lane Horstmann, a geologist with a number of years of experience in the oil industry.

Just how good does he think Shell's chances are of hitting productiona in their 16,000 foot deep try, scheduled to be drilled in the southeastern corner of Milam County?

The national average for such a test, Mr. Horstmann pointed out, is said to be one out of four in favor of developing oil or gas production. However, there is about a one in fifty chance that any production found will be commercial to a significant degree.

"Shell has been very successful in drilling its wells," he said. "The company has had a lot of experience in deep drilling, and it has men who are experts and top specialists. And it has the money to get the best equipment both for aiding its geologists in exploring an area and in drilling a well. All these things give their drilling prospects a better chance."

But whether or not Shell succeeds in bringing in a well, Mr. Horstmann pointed out that it will be a real asset and will give Milam County's economy a lift. In fact, it is already doing this. Just for example there is the thousands of dollars that have been paid to landowners for oil and gas leases which the company acquired when putting together its huge lease block in the eastern part of the county.

Added to this will be the payroll of the drilling crews, service and other Shell personnel when operations start.

The drilling crew payroll alone usually runs around $6,500 a month, he estimated. "So with the prospect of three or four months of drilling, that will be a good payroll in itself, and will be an asset to the town where the crews are located during their stay."

Mr. Horstmann has a Bachelor of Science and Masters degree in Geological Engineering from A&M College, and was employed as a geologist for a number of years by Lone Star Gas Producing Company before becoming an independent consulting geologist.

Edwards Traces Trail Of Terror

By Harold Leon Edwards as Told to Lois Sapp

Tuesday a small, sandy-haired young man, the youngest of the four captured by law officers after a week-long spree of violence, told this Herald reporter part of his story.

Sitting slumped in a chair in the office of the Milam County Sheriff, the haggard 20-year old looked more like a boy with his sad, tearful eyes and ragged clothing.

Harold Leon Edwards, at 20, has gone through much in those few years. He related little of his background except that his mother was dead and his father lives in Roudlett, Okla. He said he had been away from home two years and had been in reform school for passing bad checks.

EDWARDS STORY:

He seemed willing to talk, needing only a starting place.

He was asked, "How did you get started on this siege of violence?"

"We were cold and hungry and after the break-in in Cameron (speaking of the Wied Hardware robbery), we went back on the river," he said in a low monotone.

"A pickup kept coming by and we got scared, so we decided we'd better leave - so we had to get a car.

"We went and got that car at the Lewises and we left after we got the money and the car. - We started traveling, trying to get away, we knew they were looking for us and we were scared."

He paused a minute as if recalling their next move.

"We parked the car in Oklahoma and slept by the Red River, then went on to Roudlett. After Roudlett, we went to DeQueen, Ark., and kept traveling until the drivers were tired - then we went to sleep. We slept at DeQueen and then went through Louisiana and stayed outside of Cuba, Ala. He paused again as if he were in a daze.

"Then we came back to Texas to rob the bank at Buckholts." His words rang more loud and clear.

BACK TO SCENE

"We knew they would be looking for us - 'cause something told me they would be looking for us; 'cause every man returns to the scene of their crime sometime.

"But we came back and spent the night in a hay barn close to that place and then went to that house.

"I kept trying to get them to give up - finally they decided to give up. I was ready to give up 'cause I was tired of running. I was scared and we were all scared all of the time.

"All four of us were working at a carnival and that's where we met."

Buckholts Letter: People Appreciate 'Peace On Earth'

(Ed Note: This letter was sent to The Herald not as a personal letter, but as an expression of the thoughts of the Buckholts Community.)

Dear Editor:

The Buckholts community is again back to peace and quiet but thoughts are still back to a few hours before when everyone began to gather together in homes and public places.

The people here are expressing thanks to Mr. Carl Black, his entire staff of officers, the Texas Rangers and all officers too numerous to mention who helped to capture the men who put fear in everyone's hearts.

The people are expressing thanks to all who helped in making coffee and opening warm doors to all the officials who worked so hard.

We surely want to say thanks to Mrs. Albert Abel for opening her cafe and serving food and coffee, to Frank Tomascik and Mr. A. R. Walschak who kept their service stations open all night to help as best they could.

The people of this little community now really know what it means when they say, "Peace on earth, good will toward all men."

Shell Slates 16,000 - Foot Wildcat

By Lloyd Albertson

A 16,000 foot Smackover wildcat is scheduled to be drilled in east Milam County. It will be the deepest wildcat ever drilled in this Central Texas area.

Shell Oil Company of Houston last week filed a notice of intention to drill a 16,000 foot Smackover wildcat on the lease block it has been assembling in eastern Milam County during the past year.

The notice was filed with the Railroad Commission's Oil and Gas Division office last Tuesday, San Antonio Express oil editor, Nancy Heard reported in the Wednesday column.

The wildcat will be the No. 1 Adoue Estate, and is located on a 417 acre lease in the James G. Eldridge Survey. It is about 8 miles east of Milano and 5 miles southwest of the Gause Field, and is near the Milam - Burleson County line.

Shell reportedly has not yet started to move in equipment to the drilisite. However, it is expected to begin operations within a short time.

The company has assembled a large lease block in the eastern part of Milam County; a number of its lease men have been at work in that area for the past year or eighteen months. Several other of the major companies - including Gulf, Texas Company and Sinclair - also have acquired leases there.

A good deal of royalty buying, according to some accounts, also has been underway for the past few months. Prices paid for royalty reportedly have ranged up to $50 an acre on land in the area.

Shell's No. 1 Adoue Estate will be the first deep test for Milam County since General Crude Oil Company of Houston drilled three wildcats in late 1958 and early 1959 about 7 or 8 miles south of Milano and near the Burleson County line. One of these, the No. 1 H. H. Coffield, was permitted to 14,000 feet, but was abandoned after drilling to 12,670 feet and into what was identified as salt.

Another of the General Crude wildcats, after finding no shows in the Edwards Lime at around 6,700 feet, was plugged back to about 3,450 feet and completed as a small producer in the Navarro.

The new Shell wildcat also will be located 9 or 10 miles east and a little south of the Texas Gulf Sulphur No. 1 Fee, drilled to 12,700 feet in 1955. This try, located three miles northwest of Milano, created a good deal of interest, but was plugged and little information has ever been released about it.

Shell's wildcat is much closer to Milam County's only deep producer, the D. H. Byrd No. 1 Lucinda Greene, drilled about ten years ago. The Byrd well was a gas - distillate discovery, located near Gause, and went to 8,200 feet in the Travis Peak. A 13 mile gas gathering line was laid to the well from Lone Star Gas Company's line in Cameron, but shortly after the well was turned into the line it developed trouble from salt water and finally had to be abandoned.

The Lucinda Greene was located about 5 miles northeast of the new Shell wildcat.

Col. Champlain will submit a written report within a few days on his findings during the inspection.

Capt. Willingham also reported that Company C had conducted a recruiting campaign during the past three months and had enlisted 17 new members. He listed them as: Charles H. Camp, August J. Dohnalik, Stanley N. Fisher, Thomas H. Fisher, Kenneth J. Hollas, Joe L. Humplik, Thomas N. Johnson Jr., Joel L. Kirk, Frank J. Klecka Jr., Anton F. Klecka, George D. Kortis, Dennis Lazek, Fred Lazek III, Martin Mitchan, Julius W. Paschell, Raymond A. Talafuse Jr. and Clark J. Wohleb.

A number of the new Guardsmen were recruited by Pvt. Geo. D. Kortis and he received an $80 prize award. Five more applications for enlistment in the unit also have been received and are being processed, Capt. Willingham said.

Alcoa Head Speaks To Cameron Lions On Aluminum Demand

Prompted by a surging world - wide demand for aluminum, Aluminum Company of America is fast becoming a major international organization, Joe E. Yates, Manager of Alcoa's Rockdale Works, told the Cameron Lions Club last week.

In the past several years Alcoa has established production facilities in all 11 counties and now has sales offices located throughout the world, Yates told the Lions.

The Works Manager indicated Alcoa would prefer to supply foreign markets "from our own plants but the economic and political facts of life prevent this." He said, "In order to penetrate these markets we have had to build or buy plants in a number of foreign countries. These include England, Norway, Mexico, Japan, Australia and several South American republics."

The tremendous potential for aluminum consumption aboard is a chief factor behind Alcoa's broadened activities in the foreign field, Yates observed. United States per capita consumption today is around 28 pounds. This compares to ten pounds in Europe, five pounds in Japan, and less than one pound in countries like India, Latin America, and Africa.

"As these nations develop," Yates added, "the demand for aluminum will continue to grow and we expect to be there ready to serve those markets."

TRADE RESTRICTIONS

Another important stimulant to Alcoa for investment overseas is the need to get around trade restrictions that exist in the form of tariffs, import licenses, exchange controls, and other trade barriers that block or reduce the sale of U. S. exports.

"These expanded foreign activities have affected Alcoa in a number of ways," Yates indicated. "From the point of view of manpower, the increased foreign activities have opened up new areas of experience and opportunity for a good many Alcoans." The Works Manager named several former Rockdale Works employees who are currently engaged in some foreign activity.

Yates himself had some first-hand knowledge of international Alcoa activities. For the past four years prior to his becoming Works Manager at Rockdale, he had traveled aboard investigating potential sites for alcoa smelting operations.

Naval training produces the power in seapower by supplying qualified personnel to man the ships, aircraft and shore stations of today's Navy.

POULTRY DISEASE

Wet litter in broiler or layer house provides an ideal environment for development and spread of C-R-D and coccidiosis poultry diseases.

Alcoa To Employ Additional Men

Another 35 men will be hired at Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works before the first of the year, Joe E. Yates, plant manager, said today. Yates indicated the 35 extra jobs were created as a result of increased activity in the aluminum smelter's Anode Plant and extra manpower needed for vacationreplacements.

Hourly employees at the aluminum plant will become eligible for 10 weeks vacation with 13 weeks pay during 1964, Yates explained. This will open up jobs for about 30 people, he added.

By the first of the year employment is expected to be nearly 1060. This figure includes 87 new employees who were put to work as a result of the reactivation of the plant's sixth potline last Tuesday.

When the sixth line comes up to full production in the next few days, the plant will be operating at its rated capacity of 150,000 tons of aluminum a year.

The Works Manager indicated that present and anticipated demands for aluminum throughout Alcoa's broad spectrum of mill products prompted the restart of additional facilities.

Yates was highly complimentary of Alcoa employees. "In the past few years, this business has become a great deal more complex and extremely competitive. The Rockdale Works group has done a fine job of meeting these challenges."

He pointed out that the potroom crews at the smelter recently established an all-time high in average metal purity. The average for a recent full week of production at the plant was more than 99.76 per cent. "This is excellent workmanship," he said. "It illustrates what can be done when a full team of good players makes a determined effort to reach an objective."

Wanted - 300 Farm, Ranch Record Keepers.

COLLEGE STATION - As a farm or ranch operator, would you like to join as a select group of co-operators with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service in a mail-in-record keeping project

The Service's farm management specialists, with Rex Kennedy serving as coordinator, have issued a call for 300 volunteers who would like to participate in the year-long record project. Kennedy says for the past two years about 50 cooperators have been under the program and that results have been good. The program utilizes the electronic computers at Texas A&M University and makes it possible for the specialists to do a faster and more thorough job.

Kennedy points out that the results of the past two years clearly indicate weaknesses in management operations; especially as they relate to costs, yields, machinery and labor utilization. He adds that the past experience has caused the specialists to strongly recommend enterprise accounting, although it is not mandatory for the new cooperators.

Here's what the new cooperators will furnish the specialists at Texas A&M - a beginning inventory, monthly expense and income records (mailed in each month), and an ending inventory. At the end of the year, the specialists will supply the cooperator with a detailed analysis of the year's record. This analysis will be provided in time for use in connection with tax reporting, Kennedy says.

The material submitted by the cooperators will be treated as confidential information and only summaries or averages without identification of individuals will be used by the specialists in their work. Summaries of the records will be available on request any time during the year, says Kennedy.

If you would like to participate in this mail-in-farm or ranch accounting program, the size or type of your operation makes no difference, you are advised to contact the local county agent at once. He can supply detailed information and the selection will be largely on a first come basis, Kennedy adds.

County Agent Notes

State Pecan Show Dec. 18-19

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

The State Pecan Show will be held December 18 and 19 at Memorial Student Center in College Station. Eighteen Milam County Pecan Show winners were entered this week in the state show, according to Anton Anderle, chairman of the local show.

Exhibitors representing Milam County are: Judith Mueck, Joe Schriber, Mrs. Wavy Charles, Anton Anderle, Seth Corley, Mrs. J. L. Foster, Pete Keen, Martin Mueck, Jane Mueck, E. J. Provasek, J. C. Brashear Jr., Mrs. Don Humble and J. A. Provasek. Entries at the State Show represent the blue ribbon pecans from 15 county winners. The public is invited to visit the State Show at their convenience on December 18 and 19.

The new Pecan variety crosses will be exhibited at the State Show for those interested. Most of our new Pecan varieties will be the results of crossing known varieties to intensify desirable characteristics such as increased yield, better disease resistance and other qualities. The U.S. Pecan Field Station is located at Brownwood and is headed by Mr. L. D. Romberg.

SWINE SHORT COURSE

Dr. R. M. Titsworth, local S.P.F. Swine breeder and J. D. Moore, Milam County Agent have been invited to help plan the 1964 state swine short course. The State Committee meeting is called by Parks Tucker Jr., president of the Texas Swine Breeders Association and will be held at College Station on January 2. Local swine men who have suggestions for the program are asked to contact Dr. Titsworth or the County Agent.

Special provisions for loans to purchase feed for eligible dairymen and beef cattle producers was announced today by Mr. N. J. Cappleman, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration. Mr. Cappleman stated that these provisions have been developed due to many requests from over the state by leaders of the dairy and beef industries.

This emergency loan program has been developed to assist dairymen and beef cattle producers to maintain their foundation heards in certain areas of critical food shortages. "Many sections of the state received far less than normal rainfall during the growing season this year," stated the State Director.

Mr. Cappleman emphasized that this feed loan is available to eligible dairymen and beef cattle producers located in counties designated for emergency loans. One of the eligibility requirements is that the applicant is not able to obtain adequate private credit to finance needed purchases of hay and grain to maintain basic foundation herds of livestock.

Some of the provisions of this new loan include scheduling the amount advanced for the purchase of feed over a period of 18 months. In addition, the initial payment may be deferred up to 6 months.

Due to the many requests for this type assistance the State Director advised that all those who have any questions regarding this loan program to contact Mr. Henry Ivey, who is the County Supervisor for Milam County. His office is located in the Horstman Building, 109 West Second Street, Cameron.

500 At Schiller Banquet

A crowd of over 500 attended the dinner honoring Rep. Milton Schiller in Cameron last Thursday night at the National Guard Armory and heard state officials term the Cameron man as a "dedicated servant of the people."

House Speaker Byron Tunnell and attorney General Waggoner Carr were guest speakers for the affair and praised the young freshman legislator.

Emory B. Camp, Cameron attorney, who intoduced Tunnell and Carr, injected a solemn note when he asked the large crowd to stand for a moment of silent tribute to "our great President, John F. Kennedy."

"Tonight we are on hallowed ground," Camp said as he recalled the National Guard Armory where the dinner was being held was dedicated to the "preservation of the United States and the things for which it stands and to the peace of the world by President Lyndon Johnson.

Tunnell said that he viewed Schiller from a different view point as it was necessary to analyze his background and philosophy as he did each of the 149 appointees.

"I appointed Milton because of his business background and he did a wonderful job, as he did on all the committees on which he served," Tunnell said.

The legislative is a thankless position and most of our work is accompanied by committee assignments, he noted. He spoke of Schiller as a man of maturity and a man of experience.

Carr praised Schiller and called him a staunch supporter of the work of the attorney generals office and the work they are attempting to carry out for the state.

"Your area has traditionally provided the leadership of Texas," Carr said and continued. "Those people you remember are those who rise head and shoulders above the average man.

"You can be proud that you have sent to Austin a man who has conducted himself in the highest tradition of service to his district and as a representative of the great State of Texas," he said.

He said in order to serve Texas, a man must give up valuable time, family and homelife and that service in the government means a loss of wealth. Carr said he felt assured that the Governor would testify that Schiller is the kind of man who will meet problems of a growing state face-to-face.

Bassel Wilson, chairman of the dinner who served as toastmaster, introduced a delegation of mayors from Caldwell, Thorndale, Hearne, Rockdale and Cameron. The mayors presented gifts to Rep. Schiller and Mrs. Schiller.

The large crowd, which evidenced a warm display of friendship and support, obviously touched Schiller. He spoke at the close of the event expressing tributes of the House Speaker and Attorney General.

"All I can say is thank you from the bottom of my heart. I shall always remember and cherish this night. Thank you all for coming and if you will come to Austin when the legislature is in session, I promise you I will say more," Schiller said.

Among the state dignitaries who attended were Sen. Murray Watson of Waco, Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham, Rep. Ben Barnes of DeLeon, Rep. John Traeger of Seguin, Rep. George Richards of Huntsville and Rep. Charles Wheeler of Temple.

Wilson read telegrams of congratulations and regrets for being unable to attend the appreciation dinner.

Mrs. Wiese Hosts Pleasure - Profit Christmas Party

Mrs. Beatrice Wiese entertained members of The Pleasure and Profit Club Thursday, December 12 at the home of Mrs. Frances Hensley.

The serving table, covered with a Christmas cloth, had a centerpiece of red and green baubles, holly and red candles. The table held a tempting assortment of holiday goodies. Roberta Bowling served coffee from a silver service.

After refreshments members exchanged gifts by drawing numbers. Jackie Clark acted as Santa Claus and handed out the gifts, many of which were hand made by members.

Decorations for the tea carried out the bride-elect's chosen colors of gold and white. Guests registered at a small table covered with a white cloth and centered with a crystal champagne glass holding gold roses.

A gold satin cloth with white net overlay covered the serving table. Silver appointments were used and a large arrangement of white spider mums centered the table. Snowball cakes, mints and Russian tea were served.

Guests were seated at small tables covered with white linen cloths and centered with miniature arrangements of white spider mums.

Miss Dorcas Ann Smith, sister of the bride, and Miss Abbie Gayle Batte registered guests.

Also in the houseparty were Mmes: John S. Batte, Joe Hickman, Griffin Burnett, Buddy Shipp, Eldon Batte, Virginia Schusler and Alvin Mondrik.

Yoemen Beat Bulldogs 55-49

The Cameron Yoemen nipped the Thorndale Bulldogs Basketball team Monday night in a game played in Thorndale with a 55-49 score.

Merlin Lester led the Yoemen scoring with 23 points followed by Billy Davenport with 12 points.

At halftime the Yoe team were 12 points in front with a 35-23 score but the Thorndale players put on a hard drive and closed the gap to 5 points at the end of the third quarter.

Thorndale was still fighting a mighty battle in the fourth when they came within one point of the Yoemen with only two and one half minutes left in the game. Cameron got hot again and pulled away to beat them six points.

In the B-team game Cameron beat Thorndale 50 to 30.

Other basketball action saw the Yoemen go down under three mighty teams in the Temple tournament.

In their first game played Friday they were defeated by 3-A Cypress Fairbanks 56 to 31. Lester was high point man with 10 points.

Their first game Saturday was with University of Waco, another 3-A school that will be going into class 4-A next year. University kept the Yoemen far behind with their outstanding playing and beat them 74-29. Lester led the Cameron scorers with 8 points.

In their last game played Saturday night fans saw the Yoemen play a good game of ball but they were still nipped by LaVega 57-52.

The game rocked back and forth after the first quarter when LaVega had a 10 point lead. At halftime the Yoemen had picked up some of the margin and the score was 30-26. In the last quarter LaVega put on a freeze retaining possession of the ball as the minutes ticked away on the clock. Lester was high point man again with 23 points.

LAWMEN PRAISED

At the courthouse, Texas Ranger Clint Peoples, head of the Waco division, expressed praise for the work of the lawmen.

"This was the best coordinated peace officer work that I have ever been on. The state, county and local men all cooperated as they knew they had to get these men because they were highly dangerous. Their primary interest was to help Sheriff Black to apprehend these men as they knew if they once got away they would kill someone," Peoples said.

District Atty. John Henderson Jr. also praised the work done.

"I am very appreciative of the fine efforts of Sheriff Carl Black, the Texas Rangers who participated in the investigation of the case and the questioning of the four suspects. Also the other local and Central Texas law enforcement officers involved in the manhunt in and around Buckholts," Henderson said.

7-DAY INVESTIGATION

Capture of the four men ended an investigation that had been going on in the Buckholts area since December 9 when it was found that the Wied Hardware store had been robbed of some guns. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lewis were abducted form their home and robbed and another Buckholts home was burglarized.

A connection between the Texas, Oklahoma and Alabama crimes were established when the car stolen from the Lewises was found burned near the home of Leonard Culpepper, who was found murdered.

The Faculty Fatties will play the Cameron Yoemen in a comedy game Friday night at Yoe Gymnasium. Game time will be 7:30 p.m. and will be preceded by a game between the 8th grade basketball team versus the 9th grade basketball team. The first game will be at 6 p.m.

"The faculty anticipates going in to the Christmas holidays victorious," said Coach George Kirk. He noted that they would be wearing uniforms, of some nature, that is if they could find something to fit the "fatties."

Everyone is invited to come out and see this expert bit of playing which should bring a lot of laughter and fun into the spirit of the 'fun' season.

Admission will be 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults. Proceeds will go to the athletic fund.

Womens Bowling Association members have been invited to participate in a Head Pin Tournament from December 23 through January 5.

It was announced that bowling would be in accordance with WIBC rules with no average and no handicap.

Prize money will be awarded by the city secretary based on the number of entries.

The Law's Difficult Work....

Law enforcement officials of the entire Central Texas agency early this week met the difficult and dangerous task of seeking out four dangerous men implicated in the death of an Alabama man and the kidnap - robbery of three elderly couples across the Southwest.

This work demands the practiced hand of the professional. Texas Highway Patrol, local authorities, Texas Rangers and other area police officials worked the Buckholts area day and night in cold and rough country. They cordoned off an area from Buckholts to Yarrellton to Pettibone with precision.

At this writing a plane joined the hunt, the largest in Central Texas history, with the bloodhounds and the men on horseback.

There is considerable comfort in knowing that these men can be organized so quickly to meet the needs of law enforcement many miles from their home stations.

They deserve the admiration that this kind of work merits.

Give The Egg A Break

EDITORS NOTE
(Because of the importance of the poultry industry in this area, we are publishing this article that first appeared in the Parade Magazine and later printed in the Fort Worth Star Telegram in the December 1, 1963 issue. - Ed.)

A PARADE MEDICAL REPORT
By Herbert L. Herschensohn, M.D.

Eighty eggs a day! Suppose that many eggs were eaten by a healthy man - what would happen to his blood cholesterol? The chances are - nothing!

Eggs have always been held in high esteem as natures perfect food. Sealed within its shell an egg has everything necessary to take a single microscopic cell and transform it into a fully developed church. It has all the proteins, carbohydrates, fats, vitamins, minerals, water and whatever else is necessary so that the chick can peck its way out of the shell and walk away well proportioned, in perfect health and very much alive.

Anyone who ate an egg felt that he, too, was absorbing into his body all these wonderful, healthpacked, nutritious substances which were so quickly and smoothly digested.

Cholesterol was a word once known only to scientists. Today it rolls off the lips of grade school children, many of them, together with their parents, thinking that cholesterol is something bad, something we must try to avoid. Since we know that egg yolk contains cholesterol it seems logical that we should stop eating eggs or eat fewer than we would like to.

Nonsense!

The only time a person should eat fewer eggs, or none, is when a doctor orders him to do so because of an allergy to eggs or a condition such as a heart-kidney-blood vessel combination of disease.

Life cannot exist without cholesterol. If not enough is eaten, the body manufactures whatever additional it needs. The supply can never become deficient. Not a single bit of cholesterol ever has to be eaten. However, if a large amount is eaten, the body automatically cuts down its own production.

20 Grams of Cholesterol Per Day

To test the efficiency of this regulating system, enormous amounts of cholesterol - up to 20 grams per day - were fed to healthy humans. There was no significant effect on the blood. The yolk of a medium-sized egg contains ¼ gram of cholesterol. Twenty grams of cholesterol is equivalent to the amount in 80 eggs.

If eating eggs and other cholesterol-rich foods does not affect the level of cholesterol in the blood, why do many persons have a higher-than-average amount?

In the first place, a single test for cholesterol proves nothing. Tests should be done repeatedly over weeks or months to be considered significant. If the amount of cholesterol is really high and stays high, it could be due to many conditions. There may be something wrong with the regulating system. It could be caused by liver trouble or gall bladder disease. Or it could be due to stress.

A constantly high cholesterol level does not necessarily mean that heart trouble will result. There have been many cases of heart attacks in which the cholesterol level was low. And there have been many cases where the level was high for years, yet a heart attack never occurred.

And we debate about whether we should have one egg for breakfast or two!

If excessive cholesterol in the blood does play a role in heart trouble, it does so only in combination with other conditions. These conditions are heredity, overweight, high blood pressure ane, perhaps, sudden spurts of excessive phycisal exertion.

The doctor can't do anything about the heredity factor. Nor can he do much about bull-headed executives who sit rooted in chairs all week and then indulge in competitive sports or strenuous projects around the home on weekends. But he can do something about overweight and high blood pressure - and the egg can help.

Weight Affects Blood Pressure

High blood pressure and overweight often go hand-in-hand. When one loses weight the blood pressure usually makes a corresponding drop.

Eggs can play an important part in reducing diets where overweight is responsible for hypertension. An egg has only 77 calories. But calorie for calorie, compared to most other foods, the egg is a powerhouse of nutrition.

Most authorities at present agree that we eat too much fat. The saturated fats seem to upset the regulating system which controls the amount of cholesterol in the blood, thus permitting the level to rise. This rise, together with the fat which appears in the blood, is potentially bad for the lining of the arteries. Fatty deposits occur, so that the arteries become narrowed. If this happens to a coronary artery so that blood cannot get through, a heart attack occurs.

Where does the egg fit into the picture

In a diet of 2,500 calories, 30 per cent of which are furnished by fats, the fat of one egg yolk represents only 1-14 of the allowed intake. Besides, all of the fat in an egg is not saturated. A portion is of the polyunsaturated variety, which reduces the amount of cholesterol in the blood. So the two types of fat neutralize each other to a great extent.

Furthermore, the egg is particularly valuable in reducing diets because it gives a satisfied feeling, so that less hunger is felt.

The egg is a part of every other diet as well. In the diet manual of the Mayo Clinic, for example, eggs are recommended from infancy to old age. Whatever the purpose of the diet the egg is in every one of them.

Even old people without teeth have maintained good nourishment, because they could easily eat boiled or poached eggs - and had no trouble digesting them. Children occasionally are allergic to eggs, but most quickly outgrow the allergy.

Senate Race Big Question

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN - Although the Christmas Spirit is settling soothingly over the political scene in the State Capital this week, one political topic - the 1964 U.S. Senate race - got a steady workout.

Big question is: Will Sen. Ralph Yarborough, in spite of his recent pledge to back new Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson all the way, get a tough opponent

Best guess is: He will - although Pres. Johnson will assume no active role in the campaign.

Leaders of the liberal Texas Democratic Coalition - a combination of labor, Negro groups, the Political Association of Spanish-Speaking Organizations, and independent liberals - recently endorsed Pres. Johnson for election in 1964. But they linked that support to backing of Yarbrough also.

These names have been at the center of speculation as possible opponents for Yarborough: former Congressman Lloyd Bentsen Jr. of Houston; Congressman Jim Wright of Fort Worth; Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr of Lubbock; and former Gov. Allan Shivers of Austin.

Cass has said he won't run against Yarborough but will seek re-election and look toward the governor's race in 1966 instead. However, some tnink he still might change his mind.

Bentsen, once regarded as the most likely contender, cooled toward the Senate race after early opinion checks. Now, with a new political climate in the making, observers say he has reassessed the situation and decided to run. He won't talk until after the December 22 political moratorium, however.

Wright has kept the door open. Both he and Bentsen conseivably could be candidates.

Only announced Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate Post is John Van Cronkhite of Dallas.

Regardless of who emerges as the Democratic nominee, he will have to meet Republican opposition in November. Republicans who already have announced are George Bush of Houston and Dr. Milton V. Davis of Dallas.

REDISTRICTING - Attorney General Carr asked the U.S. Supreme Court to accept the appeal of the State of Texas against a three-judge Federal court's decision that all 23 Texas Congressmen should be elected statewide.

Carr's appeal says that the high court should recognize the unfairness of such an order. Furthermore, that it should agree to accept briefs and hear oral arguments on the legal questions involved.

Court has under study a similar order from Georgia in which a three-judge Federal court refused to enter the Congressional-districting field.

Still pending is a suit seeking to require redistricting for state legislative purposes. Primarily it is aimed at the Texas constitutional provision under which the 1,200,000 people in Harris County are limited to a single state senator.

Rep. Dick Cherry of Waco has proposed a new approach to this question. He plans to introduce a constitutional amendment which will let the Legislature grow as the state does. This would make possible additional representation for the big-city counties without such a sharp reduction in rural representation.

Cherrys plan would allow the Legislature to determine how many members it shall have, with maximums set for the Senate and House. These would be based on the number of Congressmen Texas is allowed, under automatic Federal law which reallocates seats in the national House of Representatives after each census.

Based on the present census, the Cherry proposal would permit an increase in the State Senate from today's 31 to as many as 46 members, and expand membership in the House from 150 to 172.

REPORT TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has called on motorists not only to drive safely themselves during the Christmas - New Year holidays, but to "watch out for those who don't and report them to the nearest police agency."

DPS forecasts 90 traffic dealths during the nine days from Christmas Eve through New Year's Day.

Over 150 additional highway patrolmen will be on duty. "But the best work toward reduction of the highway toll can be done by drivers themselves," Garrison said. "General carelessness and inattentiveness, coupled with disregard for the law, stand out as the greatest cause of highway tragedies."

OLD PHILOSOPHER

It Looks Like Russians Getting Tired Of Orbiting While Hungry

Dear editar:

It has long been my theory that an ordinary Russian citizen finally would get tired of conquering space and losing at the grocery store, that watching satellites on an empty stomach soon loss its excitement, and an item I read last night bears this out.

According to an article from Moscow, "the Soviet masses have displayed open discount about the shortages of flour and bread."

And Mr. Khrushchev has acknowledged this by announcing he will now spend 46 billion dollars on the Russian fertilizer industry to improve the food situation.

It may work, but I doubt it.

It's easier to order a satellite to orbit than a farmer to plow. And what a farmer does with fertilizer depends on the farmer, not to mention the weather and the slope of his land, and it's possible to spend 46 billion dollars on fertilizer and produce only 26 billion dollars worth of food. I've done it, on a fraction of that scale, and the fault wasn't with the fertilizer.

The Soviets may get by, for a time at least, with assuming that all men are exactly alike and will react exactly alike when told what to do, but when they assume all land is alike, they've hit a stump. Ordering every Russian farmer to put down 200 pounds of fertilizer per acre on February 1 is like ordering all women to wear a size 10 dress. The contour of a piece of land, like the shape of a woman is not subject to government regulations.

To get the most out of a farm a man has to be intimately acquainted with it, and even then he can flop. I've been studying this Johnson grass farm for years and it hasn't won any prizes.

Russia may get its farmers to farm for love of the fatherland, but there seems to be more to eat when you farm for a profit.

Maybe Russia needs 46 billion dollars worth of fertilizer, but I have a notion it needs to spend a few billion more on the study of human nature.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Cotton Growers In County Approve Marketing Quotas

Milam County cotton growers overwhelmingly approved marketing quotas for the 1964 cotton crop in a national referendum held Dec. 10, according to Alva E. Sanders, office manager of the Milam Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation Service.

There were 266 votes cast in favor of quotas and 19 votes "against" quotas, for a total of 285 votes. This compares with a total of 329 votes cast in the 1963 referendum. The light vote this year was probable due to the inclement weather.

Nationwide preliminary returns show that growers of upland cotton approved marketing quotas for the 1964 crop by a 94.2 percent favorable vote, the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has reported.

Since more than the necessary two-thirds of the growers voting have approved quotas, marketing quotas will continue in effect for next year's cotton crop, with growers who exceed their farm acreage allotments being subject to penalties on the farm's excess production. Price support will be available to growers who comply with the farm's acreage allotment at 65 to 90 percent of parity.

✓ 1963 Box Score:
FORD'S TOTAL PERFORMANCE TOUGHNESS DOMINATES THE COMPETITION WORLD!

Ford has chosen the most rugged testing program cars have ever faced . . . full-scale open competition on the rally and racing circuits of the world. This is the dramatic way to show that Fords have changed . . . and the sure way to be certain they keep on changing. Changed? Just look at the record:

STOCK CAR RACING: 2-to-1 margin for Ford — Ford is king of NASCAR competition and Ford Motor Company has the NASCAR Achievement Award to prove it. In the '63 season, special Ford entries won every single race of 500 miles or longer, scored nearly twice as many points as any other make. 500-mile races are the ultimate test of inherent durability and dependability. In two other major stock car racing associations IMCA and MARC, Ford drivers have wrapped up the 1963 championships.

SPORTS CAR ROAD RACING: Ford V-8 power is the new king — Here the Cobra with its special Fairlane engine emerged as the overwhelming leader in one short year. Cobra won the coveted Manufacturer's Trophy in SCCA Class A Production competition by so wide a margin no other cars—U.S. or foreign—were even in sight. And in the two major tests this fall, the Laguna Seca and Riverside races, the new King Cobras dusted off the top "unlimited" cars from all over the world.

RALLY COMPETITION: Manufacturer's Championship — Products of Ford Motor Company and its world-wide affiliates won the 1963 Manufacturer's World Rally Championship. Ford's rally year began when two specially equipped Falcon V-8's startled the automotive world in the brutal 2500-mile Monte Carlo Rallye. Other special Falcon V-8's triumphed in Holland's famed Tulip Rally, and ran away with the Manufacturer's Team Prize in the 4000-mile Trans-Canada Rally.

INDIANAPOLIS: Ford ends an era — Advanced Ford engineering smashed precedent in the classic Indianapolis "500." The first time out, a light alloy version of the Fairlane V-8 design in a Lotus chassis finished second. And the next time, in the Milwaukee "200" it ended the reign of the traditional "Indy" racing car by leading every foot of the way from start to finish.

PERFORMANCE & ECONOMY: New laurels for Ford — The Mobil Economy Run underscored Falcon's years-long reputation for thrift—a Falcon scored first in Class E (medium-engined compacts). And the Pure Oil Performance Trials brought laurels to the big Fords, which walked off with overall wins in Classes I and II for total performance (economy, acceleration and braking).

✓ 1964 Result:
TOTAL PERFORMANCE INSPIRES THE TOUGHEST, SMARTEST CARS FORD EVER BUILT!

Fords have changed—and that's the real reason behind Ford's racing successes. We're now making the longest lasting, best handling cars in our history. The things we've learned from the specially equipped cars we enter in open competition have helped make them that way.

The inherent qualities that make the victorious racing car—road-holding, braking, durability, precision control, resistance to vibration—also make a car safer, stronger, and smoother for highway use.

But prove it to yourself. Take the wheel of any new Ford. Five minutes on the road will show you the kind of total performance no one else can match.

TRY TOTAL PERFORMANCE FOR A CHANGE!

Aluminum Company Of America Notes $46 Million Capital Increase

Aggressive marketing for all aluminum applications, coupled with major expenditures for new manufacturing facilities, will characterize the aluminum industry over the next few years, Alcoa Chairman Lawrence Litchfield Jr. predicted today in a year-end statement.

Mr. Litchfield said Aluminum Company of America has increased capital expenditures from $79,000,000 in 1962 to about $125,000,000 in 1963 and expects an even greater increase in 1964. He described Alcoa's capital expenditures program as part of an accelerating and continuing effort to provide new plants and equipment with which to make high volume, profitable products for certain mass markets at utmost efficiency.

Spurring Alcoas conviction that aluminum is in the midst of a growth cycle is the certain prospect that 1963 production and shipment by the U.S. industry will again break all records. The estimate this year is that the two yardsticks will reach unprecedented peaks of 2.3 million tons of primary production and 3.1 million tons for shipments of aluminum ingot and mill products.

Mr. Litchfield said Alcoas own shipments are up 12 per cent over 1962, and that the company anticipates a further five per cent gain next year. With better price levels, it is very possible that this shipment increase will be accompanied by a marked improvement in profits for 1964, he added.

"In gross revenues," Mr. Litchfield said, "if 1963 is not Alcoa's first billion-dollar year, 1964 should be so."

Price improvement, on fabricated products, which has largely eluded the industry for two years but which recently has evidenced a trend for the better, remains the industrys most pressing problem.

Alcoa, acting to halt further price erosion and to provide a base from which to achieve a more adequate return on its investment, recently announced a policy of eliminating many so-called commodity prices for common alloy sheet items. The company is also moving further to divert small lot orders from the mills to the distributors.

Mr. Litchfield said Alcoa is emphasing strongly the development of markets possessing a potential for large volume and the cost-cutting benefits of mass production.

4-H CLUB NOTES

By Charles W. Henson

Ass't. Milam County Agent

Brent Laywell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Laywell, 709 East 15th Street of Cameron was selected as having the best Jr. record book entered for the Texas Sheep and Wool: Goat & Mohair Contest in Milam County. Brent has had Fat Lambs as a project for four years. With his lambs, Brent has never placed lower than a second at the County Show and has won Grand Champion and Reserve Champion this show.

His winnings have not stopped at the county shows. Brent has placed lambs at the Heart of Texas Fair, Fort Worth Livestock Show and has shown them at San Antonio, Dallas and Houston

Brent became interested in lambs because they required very little space and could be adequately cared for in town.

He has also served as song leader, Vice President and Council Delegate for his club. Not only is he a strong leader in 4-H but also in school and community activities.

SHOW TIME

It is almost time again for many Milam County 4-H'ers. This year there will be barrows, steers, beef heifers, lambs and dairy heifers shown at the three major shows in Texas.

The Fort Worth show will be January 24 - February 2, the San Antonio Show is February 2-16, and the Houston Show is February 19 - March 1.

LIVESTOCK SHOW

John S. Batte, chairman of the Junior Livestock Committee, called a meeting of the committee December 16, to set the date of the Junior Livestock Show. The date set was January 11, 1964.

Fire and accident hazards are multiplied at this season and most are man-made. Unless more attention is given to safety, the results could mean a disaster. The trouble could start with the center of attraction, the family Christmas tree. Damage from this source can be lessened by the selection of a freshly cut tree and by proper handling. To tell the freshness of a tree, bounce it hard on the ground. If the needles do not shower on the ground, you can be assured of a freshly cut tree. The tree can be kept fresh by cutting off ½ to 1 inch of the butt, and standing the tree in water or snow outdoors until ready for use.

The tree should be placed away from exits, fireplaces, stoves, radiators, powerful electric lights and other sources of heat. Only UL approved lights should be used on the tree. All used lights should be checked before using. Materials used for decoration should be nonflamable. Tree lights should be turned off when no one is at home.

If you are planning a trip during the holidays, please drive carefully so that the Yuletide season will be a happy one.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Futschik were in Austin Friday. They were accompanied home by their little granddaught, Darlene Vitek, who spent the weekend here.

Joe Geiser came home from Lubbock and is now employed in Waco.

Take Your Problems To Church This Week

A NEW WORLD AHEAD FOR AMERICA'S CHILDREN

Actually — everything we do today is for our children's future. They are too young to know that all our plans for them have not been cancelled but are being worked on more fervently than ever before, that their whole future depends upon our successful accomplishments.

Also, we should not lose sight of the fact that we must keep faith with our children by giving them a firm foundation in knowledge of the spiritual rights of all Americans, regardless of faith. By taking them to Church and Sunday School regularly they learn the far reaching benefits of true guidance inspired by the Church and the vital part it plays in their future freedom and well-being.
